

PERMANENT CALL FOR ENTRIES

Send your movie on the road!

The travelling short film festival Moviemiento is launching a permanent call for entries.

In the future, Moviemiento will be organizing special short film screenings in different locations throughout Europe on a regular basis, in addition to the official European-wide Moviemiento tour. The next tour is planned for 2007. Until then, you can send us your short films 12 months a year - to be entered both in the official festival selection as well as into our selection for single screenings! Specific dates and information on the planned screenings will be announced both on our website and distributed through the newsletter. If you want to enter your short film for a certain screening event, make sure it arrives seven weeks before the set screening date.

For the permanent call for entries, there are no thematic criteria – you are free to send in films on any subject. However, we continue to welcome films on the themes of “travelling,” “nomadism,” “on the road,” to be entered for the official tour 2007 selection.

GENRE: As before, all genres are welcome: experimental, documentary, animation, fiction...

LENGTH: The film must not be longer than 15 minutes.

FORMAT: Format of screenings copies: Mini-DV, DVD, VHS, S-VCD.
The screening copies cannot be sent back.

LANGUAGE: If language is important to your film and it is not shot in English, it must have English subtitles.

In addition to the screening copy, please send us the filled-out and signed form which you can download on our website, a short synopsis in English and information about the filmmaker, cast and crew.

The next open-air screening event will take place on the 28./29. July 2006 in a quarry close to the marble town of Carrara in Tuscany, Italy. The deadline for this event is 15. June, 2006. As soon as a selection for the Carrara event is made we will inform you whether your film has been chosen for screening.
